Leppert, Pickens announce major donation

Dallas Business Journal

Dallas Mayor Tom Leppert and Dallas City Council members will be in South Dallas Wednesday to celebrate a $6 million gift by oilman and philanthropist T. Boone Pickens.

The donation will support the efforts of the Jubilee Park community and its residents. Jubilee Park is located at S. Carroll Avenue and Lindsley/Parry Avenue.

On Wednesday, Leppert and Pickens will man bulldozers to begin demolition of an abandoned nightclub located across the street from a kindergarten Head Start program in Jubilee Park.

Other dignitaries expected to attend include Dallas Police Chief David Kunkle; Craig Reynolds, Dallas Independent School District Task Force on New Facilities; and Dallas businessman and community leader Walt Humann, representing Jubilee Park.
